

Denise Byrd 917-604-5479 / denisebyrdli@gmail.com / linkedin.com/in/denisebyrd dbyrdonline

BRANDING & COMMUNICATIONS LEAD

Creative Direction / Writing / Creative Strategy / Brand Voice / Relationship Building

15+ years as a versatile and creatively-driven brand builder, skilled at managing the development of digital content and traditional advertising. Innate storyteller, consistently able to express a brand's voice and weave its narrative across all content. Adept at translating nuanced information into impactful communications.

Expert project and team leader from ideation through implementation. Exceptional internal and external partner. Skilled at relationship building. Motivated to innovate solutions.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Creative Lead / Writer, Independent Contractor New York — July 2019-May 2020

Oversee the development and execution of creative content.

Creative Director, EHE Health — June 2020-July 2021

Freelance Creative Lead / Copy — September 2019-May 2020

Managed Creative department. Oversaw the development and execution of creative assets and content strategy to increase engagement. Wrote digital health and wellness communications.

Creative Director / Copy, CarrotNew York — July 2016-June 2019

Mentored a team of designers and writers. Managed the conceptual development, storytelling and production of large-scale, education-based social impact and consumer awareness campaigns for clients including the FDA, Feeding America, TD Ameritrade and Colgate.

- Built a creative team and created frameworks for creative process, minimizing dependence on freelancers and increasing internal turnaround.

Communications Consultant / Freelance Writer — 2014-2016

Inspired collaboration, developed brand voice and conceived creative strategy for various boutique agencies, entrepreneurs and nonprofits, including the Zahn Innovation Center at CUNY.

- Contracted by Grey New York to create launch ideas for global CPG launching new product line for brand targeting multiculturals. Initial concepts tested exceptionally well. Internal team executed.
- Generated 3MM+ Twitter exposures for a little-known European artist. Created social media campaign, encouraging PF Global Artists' pop-up store visitors to take photos of the artist's work and tweet using the hashtag #tomorrowwillbefamous. Celebrities shared these photos and videos and created a huge follow-on effect.

Group Creative Director, UniWorld Group — 2011-2014

Associate Creative Director / Copy — 2007-2011

Reported directly to the Chief Creative Officer. Led cross-functional teams and the production of integrated campaigns targeting multicultural audiences for Fortune 500 companies. Select clients included Ford, Time Warner Cable, Burger King, and Mars.

- Streamlined the content creation process and improved the turnaround of digital and video assets by 25% by collaborating closely with project management and account teams to overcome internal and external challenges.
- Developed successful "Where I'm From" integrated campaign for the Marine Corps that generated follow-up actions from more than 40% of millennial prospects after seeing the ads. Campaign won numerous awards including: American Advertising Federation Mosaic Award for best multicultural campaign of 2011, best interactive campaign of 2012, and David Ogilvy Research Award.
- Achieved 124MM click-throughs, over 51% higher than projected on an integrated launch campaign for the Ford Fiesta. Conceived overarching concept statements, illustrated cultural insights relevant to millennials and wrote all copy for the "Inspired by Color" campaign.

Senior Copywriter, McCann New York — 2005-2007

Jr. Copywriter — 1999-2002, Copywriter — 2002-2005

Conceived and carried out through post-production TV, print and radio ads for global CPG and retail clients, including L'Oreal, Johnson & Johnson, Unilever, Wendy's, Lowe's and Kohl's.

- Developed innovative campaign for Unilever's 'Skippy Nutshell' commercial, named an Adweek Best Spot. The characters' narrative was used in all touch points, a first of its kind integration.
- Created the name, testing concepts, and ads for L'Oreal's "ColorJuice", a product intended for a short seasonal launch. Campaign was so successful, the product remained on shelf over 10 years.

ADDITIONAL EXPERIENCE

Guest Speaker, Branding Bootcamp, Zahn Innovation Center at CUNY — 2016-2018

Created lecture "What is Branding" and advised students accepted into highly competitive startup incubator.

Marketing Consultant, Philip K. Howard and Common Good — 2013

Collaborated with team on creative approaches to content, website redesign and campaign ideas.

Communications Chair, Board, Yale Alumni Association of New York — 2011-2013

Edited and maintained bi-monthly newsletters with an over 25% open rate. Achieved faster turnaround in social media channels by creating and managing a task force to overhaul channel strategy. Increased awareness of Alumni events by hiring and managing the board's first Communications Coordinator.

ADDITIONAL TRAINING & MENTORSHIP

Served on the Master of Professional Studies Portfolio Review Committee. 2018

Yale Forum for Volunteer Leadership & Innovation. 2012

Mentor, MAIP/Multicultural Advertising Intern Program. 2007 & 2012

EDUCATION

NYU graduate School of Film/TV, New York, New York M.F.A.

Yale University, New Haven, Connecticut. BA History/Theater Studies.